

FITTING CEREMONY AT THE EXPOSITION

Independence Day Celebrated by the Jefferson Association.

Plans Formulated for Memorial to Be Built in Washington.

Independence Day is being celebrated at the Jamestown Exposition today by elaborate, patriotic ceremonies in which descendants of the signers of the Declaration of Independence form the principal figure. It is the first gathering of this body of distinguished citizens from every State and Territory whose ancestors participated in the making of the great document that defied the tyranny of England and laid the cornerstone of the great American government.

The movement for this reunion had its inception in Washington through the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Association, which was organized for the purpose of raising a fund for the erection of a memorial befitting the memory and services of the great commoner and statesman in the nation's Capital.

Orators of the Day.

The orators of the day are Governor Hughes, of New York, and Woodrow Wilson. At noon there was a salute by the forts of Hampton Roads and the United States and foreign naval vessels assembled in front of the exposition, followed by a salute by the army artillery. President Henry St. George Tucker, of the exposition, will deliver the address of welcome. This afternoon at 5 o'clock a chorus of 500 trained voices will sing patriotic music and the national anthem. Fireworks will be displayed to-night.

William Shields McKean, of Washington, secretary of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Association, conducted the campaign that made it possible in bringing together the large number of descendants of the fathers of the country. In his work he had the support of President Roosevelt, former President Grover Cleveland, Governors J. Frank Handy, of Indiana; E. W. Hoch, Kansas; Curtis Guild, Massachusetts; Edwin Warfield, Maryland; Fred M. Warner, Michigan; Edwin C. Stokes, New Jersey; A. L. Harris, Ohio; George E. Chamberlain, Oregon; Claude A. Swanson, Virginia; J. H. Higgins, Rhode Island; C. L. Crawford, South Dakota; John C. Cutler, Utah; W. M. C. Dawson, West Virginia; A. N. Brown, Washington; J. O. Dawson, Wisconsin; George B. McClelland, mayor of New York; E. Clay Timanus, mayor of Baltimore; Winslow Warren, president general society of the Cincinnati; Lunsford L. Lewis, vice president of the National Society Sons of the American Revolution; Woodrow Wilson, L. D. president of Princeton University; Cornelius A. Pugsley, president of the Sons of the American Revolution; former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, and many others of equal prominence.

Purpose of Association.

It is the purpose of the Jefferson Association to erect in Washington a replica of the Parthenon at Athens, the building to be used as a national museum of colonial relics and papers historic of Jefferson's time. A small model of the building is on exhibition at the Jamestown Exposition. Through the reunion and the display of the model of the Parthenon, patriotic interest will be created toward the big fund that will be necessary to erect the building. A valuable historic souvenir, authorized by Congress to promote the interests of the association, a large bronze medallion struck at the Philadelphia mint, will be given to subscribers. In addition to this, the complete works of Thomas Jefferson, six rare and beautiful editions, will be given to subscribers. The officers of the Jefferson Memorial Association are:

Acting president, Hilary A. Herbert, Alabama; treasurer, Jesse B. Wilson, District of Columbia; secretary, Wm. Shields McKean, N. J.; Board of Governors: Mark A. Smith, Arizona; Morris B. Beardsley, Connecticut; R. R. Kenney, Delaware; Ralph Walsh, District of Columbia; A. D. Candler, Georgia; Josiah Quincy, Massachusetts; Horace S. Cummings, New Hampshire; Philip P. Baker, New Jersey; Josephus Daniels, North Carolina; Olton B. Parker, New York; Charles Emory Smith, Pennsylvania; D. D. Granger, Rhode Island; F. W. Wagner, South Carolina; Harry Lee Maynard, Virginia.

The past week has been a particularly gay one at the Hotel Rudolf, made up of musicals, dancing, and music by the excellent permanent orchestra of the hotel. The "Red Rambler Grill," decorated with thousands of red rambler roses and myriads of colored incandescent lights, has proven one of the big attractions of Atlantic City, and the concerts given in that room every night are fully appreciated.

Beautiful souvenir menu cards of the Fourth of July dinner were presented to guests of the house today, and the holiday was otherwise celebrated in the most enjoyable manner. On Monday evening, a most interesting concert was given in the large music room of this hotel by Mme. Stankowitch, assisted by many of her pupils.

BOY UNDER KNIFE
II TIMES; THEN DIES

WORCESTER, Mass., July 4.—Edgar Terrill, aged thirteen years, is dead at the hospital after having survived eleven surgical operations. Death saved him from the twelfth. Several years ago his case was famous on account of the numerous operations performed upon him between the ages of two and five years in an attempt to cure cleft bladder. He passed much of his early life in hospitals at Brooklyn.

The operations were finally successful and he became a rugged youth until a short time ago, when he was attacked by appendicitis. June 28 he was admitted to the hospital. His case was pronounced critical and an immediate operation was believed necessary. Upon examination it was found that peritonitis precluded further surgical treatment.

THE CHRISTY GIRL, IN WASHINGTON, WHERE ARE YOU?

Another Type of the Christy Girl

LISTENING TO THE ORCHESTRA.

PEOPLE ENTHUSE OVER TIMES' PLAN

Everybody Will Join in Sending in Pictures of Her.

The girl with the Christy eyes! Have you her photograph? Get in line for the $25. Make haste and send or bring it to the Christy Editor of The Sunday Times. It may land the reward offered for the likeness of the girl bearing the most striking resemblance to the artist's model.

That there are many persons in Washington who share the belief of the young lady who says she has seen Christy's ideal in Washington, was borne out this morning by several letters received by the Christy Editor.

The writers said they had seen two or three girls whose eyes, head, mouth, and chin not only resembled the artist's pictures, but were even more beautiful.

Each writer felt sure the Christy girl could be found in Washington, and that little trouble would be experienced in getting photographs of two or three who could hardly be told from the artist's drawings.

No Limits to Age.

Some inquiries were made regarding the age of contestants in the Christy contest. No age limit is set. Married women, maids of five and twenty, and sweet girl graduates and others that are not graduates of sixteen summers are eligible.

The sender of the photograph will receive the cash reward offered by The Sunday Times. It may be the photograph of your wife, sister, daughter, cousin, or friend. Perhaps you think it would be too presumptuous to believe the girl is a Christy. Perish the thought! Mail the photograph to the Christy Editor, and let him decide. With copies of every girl drawing from the pen of this famous artist, the Christy Editor is in a much better position to reach a conclusion than many others.

The Christy Editor appreciates the fact that it will be no easy task to find a girl identically like the Christy girl. Should his efforts to find the artist's model fail, the $25 in gold will be given to the sender of the photograph which looks the most like the work of the artist.

Not Like Beauty Contest.

Some comparison has been drawn between the Christy Girl contest and the beauty contest of the world, in which Washington was well and favorably represented. If they are to be compared, the Christy contest is by far the more trying of the two, because of the fact that the girls must be of a certain specified type of beauty. In the beauty contest there was no restriction as to the style of loveliness. Many beautiful women have attractive points which are not shown in the Christy girl's face, and there are innumerable points of attractiveness about the face of the Christy girl possessed by few beauties.

Photographs in order that they may be given full and careful consideration and reproduced in such a fashion as to do full justice to the girl who posed for the likeness.

DOES NOT NEED MONEY, GIVES AWAY BIG FARM

MUNCIE, Ind., July 4.—Because he already has as much money as his needs require, Patrick Hazzard, a retired business man, who is not wealthy, but who possesses an estate worth perhaps $25,000 to $30,000, decided to give away his farm, which he has owned for many years, for the purpose of giving to relatives there an immense farm. When Hazzard left Ireland, thirty years ago, this farm was worth $25 an acre; now it is worth about $4,000. After dividing his farm among relatives, Hazzard will go to the United States, where he and Mrs. Hazzard will visit the latter's childhood home.

When asked why he intended giving away his property, Hazzard replied: "When a man has enough he has enough, and shouldn't want any more. I would have no real use for the several thousand dollars that this farm would bring, and the money would be a burden to me."

The writers said they had seen two or three girls whose eyes, head, mouth, and chin not only resembled the artist's pictures, but were even more beautiful.
